

Immigration Services Agency of Japan will provide email when your date of expiration come closer.

We have added a new function to the Japan Immigration Service News.

Just by entering the date when your period of stay expires to the form, you can get the reminding email when your date of expiration come closer.

※The email is provided based on the date of expiration that you entered in the form. So please be sure to enter the correct date of expiration by checking your residence card, etc.
